

A vacuum-sealed package of rib eye steak is shown against a light-colored wooden background. The meat is dark red with visible marbling and a layer of white fat. The package is made of clear plastic and has a small white label on the right side. The label contains the text "RIB EYE STEAK" on the top line and "NOT FOR SALE" on the bottom line.

RIB EYE STEAK
NOT FOR SALE

NY STRIP
NOT FOR SALE

FILET MIGNON
NOT FOR SALE

SIRLOIN STEAK
NOT FOR SALE

SIRLOIN TIP
ROAST
NOT FOR SALE

LONDON BROIL
NOT FOR SALE

TOP ROUND STEAK
NOT FOR SALE

A vacuum-sealed package of ground meat, likely hamburger, is shown. The package is made of clear plastic and is held together by four clear plastic clips at the corners. The meat inside is dark red with some white fat specks. A white rectangular label is stuck to the front of the package with the text "HAMBER NOT FOR SALE" in black capital letters. The package is resting on a light-colored wooden surface.

HAMBER
NOT FOR SALE

BRISKET ROAST
NOT FOR SALE

A vacuum-sealed plastic bag filled with dark red beef meat, resting on a wooden surface. The bag is held open by clear plastic clips at the bottom. A small white label is attached to the top of the bag.

BEEF FOR STEW
MEAT
NOT FOR SALE